Joining Destination Asia in 1996, Paul helped to form Destination Asia Cambodia in 1999 and has been an integral part of the company ever since.

Taking advantage of the region’s diversity, we have developed innovative products providing the ultimate experiences for our clients; from team building exercises offering insight into the ancient arts and helicopter flights over ancient monuments, to exploring the Terracotta Warriors Museum with a leading cultural expert and a private champagne brunch on the Great Wall of China.

Linda Wang
Managing Director

Since joining Destination Asia as the co-founder of the China office in 2006, Linda has drawn upon her extensive product knowledge and keen understanding of the DMC industry to lead a growing team. The team in China is renown for its expertise as well as its stability—many members have been with the company for six or more years, likely in large part a result of the familial corporate culture Linda has instilled from the very beginning. With a strong client focus and a passion for showcasing the beauty and wonder of her native land, Linda is ideally placed to bring out the best of China for the country’s growing number of visitors.

“China has fascinated travelers from all over the world for thousands of years with its rich history, exotic culture and more recently, its modern and fast-paced development. Jarrod Stenhouse
Managing Director

Jarrod Stenhouse’s passion for travel, especially around Asia, has developed from a pastime into a profession and he now heads up our country operations as the Managing Director of Destination Asia Japan. After studying business in his native Australia at the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology, Jarrod headed off to Japan in 2003 and promptly fell in love with the country, throwing himself into studying the language. He then spent five years as a tour manager, the perfect position to combine his love of travel and Asia, leading groups through China, Mongolia, southeast Asia and of course, Japan. After working in management roles in several prominent DMCs and tour wholesalers in Asia, Jarrod took the reins at Destination Asia’s newest office in 2011.

“It is a very exciting time to be involved with Destination Asia in Japan. There are so many amazing opportunities and experiences that this country has to offer and we look forward to showing you our Japan.”

Peter Cools
General Manager

After obtaining a Master’s Degree in Japanese Studies in his homeland Belgium and a short-lived stint as a Japanese teacher, Peter decided he wanted to be at the forefront of the Japanese tourism industry and open Japan to the wider public. Opening the Destination Asia Kyoto office in 2014, Peter brought with him a high level of expertise in all areas of the business. His comprehensive knowledge of international markets and profound understanding of Japanese hospitality made him the perfect person to transform the country’s possibilities into our client’s opportunities. Peter speaks fluent Japanese, English and French, alongside his native Dutch.

“Japan isn’t an Asian country nor a western country. It is simply, Japan, consisting of the most unique blend of cultures you will find on any continent. Impeccable service, unparalleled safety, the best cuisine in the world and some quirksiness on top – Japan is a compelling destination to explore.”

Destination Asia Japan was set up in 2011 to meet the ever growing demand from our partners whose clients were eager to explore this island nation in the Pacific Ocean. Its towering cities, home to pioneering technology contrast the images of imperial palaces, mountainous national parks and ancient temples, creating an air of mystique. The ‘Land of the Rising Sun’ is a destination like no other; offering an unfathomable heritage and history one day, followed by hi-tech modern city living the next. A multi-layered society formed over several millennia resonates through its core and fascinates visitors from the moment they land.
One of the world’s most desirable and enigmatic destinations for gastronomic encounters, shopping, inspirational events and unexpected adventures. Hong Kong is a place of contrasts where people make and spend big money, space is a premium and the harbour glistens 24 hours a day under sunlight, moonlight or man-made lights. Ancient cultures meld with the modern face of society, while the influence of Chinese ancestry is clear to see, defining many aspects of the culture inside the city. There is a great history to this former British colony, and one must travel a little further out to find a range of adventurous options that rival any destination in Asia - and don’t forget Macau, the former Portuguese colony is just a 50 minute jet-foil boat ride away.

This compelling country has an infectiously relaxed, laid back atmosphere, even in the capital of Vientiane which is more akin to a peaceful riverside town. For individual guests or specialized groups, we can create extraordinary travel experiences that are exclusive to Cruise Asia by Destination Asia.

Pre/Post Packages

While our focus is to ensure a best possible port experience, our specialty extends deep inland to some of Asia’s most exotic, mystical and spiritual destinations. Exclusive options are extensive; including, a guided exploration of the historical center and handicraft traditions of Hue in Vietnam; following an ancient pilgrimage route from Okayama to Kotohirap in Japan; or meditating with a Burmese monk at the foot of an ancient cave temple in Sagaing.

What others are saying about Destination Asia...

We have worked closely with Destination Asia for 15 years (since the founding of Odysseys Unlimited) and consider them to be both an exemplary business partner and a long-term friend. Their consistently high level of service in all areas – from itinerary planning to operational details to hotel negotiations to the assignment of talented/caring guides - has been a hallmark of how their business is conducted and helped our business to grow substantially in Southeast Asia.

Each individual office (we utilize several) is well managed and efficiently run, with quality staff members at all levels. We look forward to many more years of our productive and enjoyable relationship with Destination Asia.

Bruce A. Epstein
President - Odysseys Unlimited, United States of America

It’s rare to find a DMC that will go out of its way to develop a deep understanding of your needs. Many quote themselves as providing exceptional customer service, but Destination Asia are one of the few that deliver on this promise. Their professional and experienced teams are capable of planning and executing even the most complex of programs.

We have worked with them for a number of years and have found their professionalism and dedication to deliver exceptional experiences unmatched. The extensive network, detailed local knowledge and consistently high standards that Destination Asia offers has allowed us to create a diverse and successful range of unique programs in the Asia region. We look forward to many more years of positive growth ahead in partnership with Destination Asia.

Michael Walker

Having had the pleasure of partnering with Destination Asia, in its various countries of operation over the past 18 years or so, I can honestly say that we have found a partner who understands service excellence, going the extra mile and delivering a seamless program each and every time.

I am always astounded by how an organisation can so successfully ensure that its values and morals are carried through to each office in countries across Asia. No matter which country you deal with, it’s like dealing with ONE company.

DA’s up-to-date communication in times of natural disasters and strife have also given us confidence that there is always a plan B ready to be put into place at the drop of a hat. If you’re looking for professionals, who feel like part of the family — you’re in the right place!

Shelley Everest

Destination Asia has been a key partner for Maritz Global Events for many many years. Our associates, and our clients, rely on them for their superior service, attention to detail and their ability to deliver the creative experiences that we are so honored to design together. Their offices serve our clients’ needs across the Asia Pacific region and what makes them really stand out is their people.

They are dedicated, passionate and committed to excellence. The term “family” is frequently used but rarely fits a company. Destination Asia truly is a family and their employee ownership structure is evident in how they treat their people and their customers. Ultimately, Destination Asia helps bring our clients meetings, events and experiential incentive programs to life.

David Peckinpaugh
President, Maritz Global Events

Destination Asia has been our key DMC partner throughout Asia for over 6 years, and has made an enormous impact to the creative ideas and service levels we have been able to provide our clients for their conference, meetings and incentives. Each Destination Asia office we have liaised with has always been truly professional and provides us with extremely creative and informative proposals showcasing unique local knowledge and added value.

As one of the UK’s largest event management agencies we are proud of our partnership with Destination Asia and together are able to provide our clients with a dedicated service and offer unique event experiences throughout Asia.

Laura-Jane Stanwell
Senior Creative Development Manager - Incentives, Zibrant Live, United Kingdom

Destination Asia once again proved to be a valuable strategic partner helping us develop and operate a complex incentive program in Sanya, China for a global hi-tech firm. This partnership started with their US based office in Chicago which allowed us to coordinate on same time zones and stay ahead of the curve as we had a very short window to plan and operate this program.

Their local team joined us on the site inspection and remained a key player throughout the planning and operational phases of the program. Destination Asia’s extensive network of contacts in the area was critical and proved to be an invaluable resource in bringing creative options to the table as well as being able to react quickly to changes during the operation of the program. All of the staff were extremely professional and took great pride in their work. Destination Asia is a must have partner when doing business in Asia!
