JAPAN GOLDEN ROUTE & PHUKET DISCOVERY

JAPAN | THAILAND

12 Days | 11 Nights

Price from: $6,320 per person (min 2 pax)

Japan's classic Golden Route meets five days of Andaman Sea discovery in this streamlined pairing of ancient cities and tropical islands.

The route opens in Tokyo before the shinkansen carries you to Hakone's hot spring country and Lake Ashi, then on to Kyoto, where the vermilion gates of Fushimi Inari and the golden pavilion of Kinkakuji anchor several days of temple-hopping. A side trip to Nara brings you face to face with more than a thousand free-roaming deer in its famed park, alongside Todaiji Temple's giant bronze Buddha.

From Kyoto, fly south into an entirely different world. Phuket's Sino-Portuguese Old Town and century-old Chinpracha Mansion reveal a heritage as layered as Japan's, with time built in for optional experiences from ethical elephant encounters to a Thai cooking class. As evening falls, an excursion into Phang Nga Bay's hidden lagoons offers a fitting contrast to close out the journey, culminating in a canoe ride beneath a sky lit by bioluminescent plankton.

Kyoto closes the Japan leg, its temples, shrines and geisha districts offering a further change of pace from the hiking and onsen soaking that came before.

In Bali, the rhythm shifts inward. Mornings begin with yoga, stretching or a village walk, followed by days spent learning Balinese offering rituals from a Brahman family, harvesting rice for a farm to table cooking class, and undergoing an ancient sound healing session, before a signature healing treatment at a riverside retreat closes the journey in Ubud.

HIGHLIGHTS

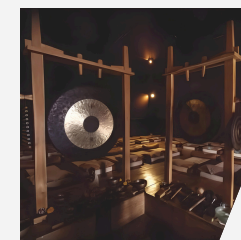

WALK THE OLD NAKASENDO TRADE ROUTE

Follow an 8-kilometre stretch of the Nakasendo, the ancient road that once linked Kyoto and Tokyo, on a gentle three-hour walk through the Kiso Valley countryside. Pass through the beautifully preserved post town of Tsumago, its wooden buildings virtually unchanged for centuries, before a private transfer returns you to your ryokan for a soothing onsen soak.

A PRIVATE BLESSING FROM A SHINTO PRIEST

Meet a priest at one of Tokyo's Shinto shrines for a short personal blessing, whether for safe travels, good fortune, or simply a moment of reflection. A guide joins you to interpret the ceremony and answer questions about Shinto belief, offering a quiet, intimate counterpoint to the city's neon energy before you head deeper into Japan.

JOURNEY INTO ANCIENT SOUND HEALING

In the village of Bentuyung, step into a session built on one of humanity's oldest healing practices. Ancient instruments create layered frequencies of sound and vibration, said to interact with the body's own rhythms to unlock relaxation and release tension. Come with an open mind; this is an experience better felt than explained, and often described as transformative.
